New start time, 6:30 pm, for this Youth Ragtime Concert!

Each student should play only one piece (solo or duet) of not more than four* minutes duration. Solo pieces should be memorized.

Period clothes (1890-1930) may be worn, however, Recital appropriate clothes are expected: no jeans, no sweats, no tennis shoes.

In appreciation and to encourage today's youth to hear and observe what youth of 100 years ago were so attracted to, each student performer will receive 2 vouchers, each good for one admission to any concert(s) at this year's Ragtime Festival, Friday Jan. 13 thru Sunday, Jan. 15, of their choice to use as they see fit.

Participants and their family members are invited to attend the reception hosted by Habitat For Humanity (our 2012 beneficiary) in the adjoining chapel immediately following the Youth Concert.

This will enable them to hear other performers who will be with us for the festival and enjoy refreshments while so doing!

Festival Highlights:

- Concerts featuring St. Louis Stompers & Paul Asaro on Friday and Saturday nights
- Free Saturday morning Symposium with Bill Edwards: Disney & Ragtime
- Silent Movies (cost $2) 11:30 am – 12:30 pm

Eau Claire Ragtime Festival 2012 is a Benefit weekend, Jan. 13-15
