

Chippewa Valley Music Teachers Association
Eau Claire Ragtime's 14th Annual Festival
Youth Ragtime Concert, Thursday, Jan. 10, 2013, 6:30 pm

Name _____
Age _____ Grade _____ School _____
Years of Study _____ OR Year began Study _____
Student hobbies/activities (1) _____
(2) _____
Title of Piece _____ Solo ___ Duet ___
Composer/Arranger _____
Difficulty/Level _____ Duration of piece _____ Minutes (4 minute maximum)
Parent/Guardian _____
Address _____ Phone _____
Teacher _____
E-mail _____ Phone _____

Application Deadline: Wednesday, Jan. 2, 2013

Concert Date: Thursday, Jan. 10, 2013, 6:30 pm

Location: First Congregational Church, 310 Broadway St., Eau Claire

Send to: Mary La Liberte, 3109 Milton Rd., Eau Claire, WI 54703

E-mail application to: mary.lalib@charter.net

Please Note: Start time, 6:30 pm, for this Youth Ragtime Concert!

Each student should play only one piece (solo or duet) of not more than four* minutes duration. Solo pieces should be memorized.

Period clothes (1890-1930) may be worn, however, Recital appropriate clothes are expected: no jeans, no sweats, no tennis shoes.

In appreciation of and to encourage today's youth to hear and observe what youth of 100 years ago were so attracted to, each student performer will receive 2 vouchers, each good for one admission to any concert at this year's Ragtime Festival, Friday Jan. 11 thru Sunday, Jan. 13, of their choice to use as they see fit.

Festival Highlights:

- Concerts featuring Larisa Migachyov, Ivory & Gold (Anne & Jeff Barnhart) and Marty Mincer on Friday and Saturday nights

Eau Claire Ragtime Festival 2013 is a Benefit weekend, Jan. 11-13

Raising funds in support of Feed My People Foodbank

Visit the festival web site to find out about all the events: www.ecragtime.org

Please indicate difficulty Levels:

Early-Middle-Late Elementary
Early-Middle-Late Intermediate
Advanced